TRACTION ISSUES STRONG

The Railway and Miscellaneous Stocks Show Marked Pressure-London a Seller of American.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 .- With the ex-Stock Market this morning opened at and their character is a secret. material declines in comparison with last night's final figures.

In Manhattan the initial transactions were at an advance of about one point the railway list and the industrial and miscellaneous stocks. parently induced by the same considera-tions which have been effective in a similar direction throughout the week, the that direction throughout of continuing stringency in the money market.

No light was thrown on yesterday's eavy speculation in the local traction issues, and nothing authoritative was made known with regard to the position of the Manhattan Railway Company. There was still much doubt as to whether some deal was actually pending or whether the movement in the stock was nothing more than a piece of auda-

London sent in lower prices for Amer-an stocks and was a seller here upon the opening of business.
